LOCAL LAW N OF 2020

TITLE

A LOCAL LAW AMENDING CHAPTER 363 OF THE CODE OF THE CITY OF ALBANY IN RELATION TO THE CREATION OF AN APPLICATION AND LICENSING PROCESS FOR DOOR TO DOOR VENDORS

GENERAL PURPOSE OF THE LEGISLATION

Currently, under Code §§ 363-4 and 363-5, all vendors (as that term is defined in § 363-2) must obtain and pay a fee for a license before they are allowed to vend any merchandise or services in the city. Vendors who wish to ply their trade door-to-door must also adhere to a number of other requirements laid out in § 363-9, including submission to fingerprinting and a background check.

The Department of Criminal Justice Services (“DCJS”), which conducts fingerprinting and background checks on the City’s behalf for this purpose, has informed us that our law, as currently written, does not meet all of their requirements “to constitute sufficient authorization to submit non-criminal applicant fingerprint inquiries to DCJS,” and has informed us that they will not take fingerprints or run background checks for the City if we do not amend our law to bring it into compliance with their requirements.

This legislation does so.

NECESSITY FOR LEGISLATION AND CHANGE TO EXISTING LAW

DCJS insists that local legislation must require applicants to furnish certain specific information in order “to constitute sufficient authorization to submit non-criminal applicant fingerprint inquiries.” DCJS also specifies how municipalities should review and consider the criminal histories of any applicants that may be revealed by the background checks DCJS performs.

This local law, which is substantially similar to a sample local law provided by DCJS, directs the City Clerk’s office to create an application form for all would-be door-to-door vendors, though which the Clerk will obtain all the information DCJS requires. It also establishes that Corporation Counsel will review applicants’ criminal histories and determine whether they are fit to act as door-to-door vendors, while bearing in mind certain provisions of the Correction Law, as also required by DCJS.

Section 363-9 has, historically, been amended by ordinance. This amendment is being done by local law, however, because DCJS guidance indicates their preference for local laws, and they require proof that the legislation has been filed with the Secretary of State before they will consider approving it.

FISCAL IMPACT

None.

The People of the City of Albany, in Common Council convened, do hereby ordain and enact:

Section 1. Subsection E of section 359-34 of Chapter 359 of the Code of the City of Albany is hereby amended to read as follows:

E. During a declared snow emergency, all ordinary parking regulations will be suspended excepting those parking regulations relative to fire hydrants, driveways and handicap zones; additionally, special events in city parks otherwise designated for snow emergency parking shall be suspended for the duration of a declared snow emergency to the extent such special event would otherwise restrict the availability of snow emergency parking.

Ordinance Number: 45.122.19

Sponsor(s): Council Member Conti

Title: AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER 359 (VEHICLES AND TRAFFIC) IN RELATION TO THE SUSPENSION OF SPECIAL EVENTS IN CERTAIN CITY PARKS DURING A DECLARED SNOW EMERGENCY

Purpose: To assure the availability snow emergency parking in city parks.

Summary: Provides for the suspension of special events in city parks designated for snow emergency parking where such event would otherwise restrict the availability of snow emergency parking.

Justification: During a declared snow emergency roadway (including interior roadways otherwise closed to traffic) in certain city parks are made available for resident parking to facilitate the movement of parked vehicles that might otherwise impede snow removal efforts. During a declared snow emergency, it is contradictory to simultaneously publicize the available of parking in city parks while also holding special events which restrict parking. This ordinance would clarify that during a declared snow emergency, suspension of ordinary parking rules also includes a suspension of special events in city parks that will impede parking available.
